My name is Andie Holman, and I am standing as a candidate in the upcoming local government elections. I grew up in the Netherlands and moved to Australia in 2016, making the Shire of Dundas my home. Together with my husband, I run a pastoral property on the Nullarbor with a campsite and accommodation and a small earthmoving business in Norseman. As a local business owner, I bring practical problem-solving and communication skills, along with a strong commitment to community service. My priorities are: enhancing services and infrastructure, promoting transparency and accountability, supporting local businesses, and ensuring Council stays on track with legislative requirements. I believe in collaboration, honesty, and listening to community needs. With your support, I will work to keep our Council responsive, accessible, and forward-thinking. I would be honoured to earn your trust and your vote.
