I moved to Norseman in 1984, when I was 12 years old, with my Mum and brother. We settled in pretty well and I made friends at school, who I still have today.

I worked in the local supermarket and mine sites just outside of Norseman which helped me buy my first house in Norseman.

Eventually I moved away and followed some adventures around Australia, only to return in 2019 to be closer to Mum and help out.

I started working at the Hospital and later volunteered with St John Ambulance service, which helped me see that Norseman had changed but it's heart was still the same.

I'm hoping by running for council that I can help to bring some positive energy and ideas to the table.

I would like to help the community by being an honest, approachable open communication person while participating in community activities and just getting in and getting your hands dirty and having a laugh.
